

High Point Quilt Guild Newsletter

August 2020

Volume 9, Issue 8

ALL OF OUR MEETINGS AND SEWING DAYS ARE CANCELLED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE BECAUSE OF COVID-19.

From our President, Janet Wells:

Once again, there is no meeting for August.

If you were participating in the block of the month and haven't been picking up your blocks but would like to get caught up, please let Susan Pierce know. She will leave them on the chair on her front porch for pick up.

One of the items I've neglected these last few months is recognizing our members' birthdays. So belated birthday wishes to:

April: Kathy, Mary Beth

June: Judy, Marsha

July: Alicia, Chuck, Joann, Susan

I hope all of you had a joyous birthday while quarantined!

Our August birthday wishes go to: Angie, Diantha, Karen, Nancy, Sue. Best wishes to you all.

Thank you to all responders to the email sent regarding the board meeting. If for some reason you did not receive the email from me, please let me know and I'll resend it to you. If you still have questions or comments, please let me know.

Try to stay out of this heat!

Happy thoughts,
Happy stitches,
Janet

High Point Quilt Guild Facebook Page

I will do my best to post any updates about meeting times or cancellations as soon as I know about them.

During our prolonged stays at home, I know lots of you have made lots of pretty things. If you want me to post them to our guild's Facebook page as a kind of virtual show and tell, email those to me at sherriquiltsalot@gmail.com. I've heard from several of you that you're having some issues posting pictures to our page -- I'll be happy to handle that for you. And include any information you would like shared along with the picture.

COVID-19 Activities –

What are guild members doing during shelter-in-place?

My very FIRST quilt top is FINALLY off my UFO list!!!! Seven years ago, Craftsy had a free BOM that caught my eye. My girlfriend & I decided to each buy a kit. We loved the polka dots! After I made it, I decided it was worthless to my family at that size. At this point, my friend had checked out of this project & started something else. I decided I could handle pinwheels, so I used some of the backing to make them. I stalled out on the backing. I was determined to use up scraps from the front to make it large enough. But then I realized it was going to be like making a second top...with no pattern! Anyway, it's done & I still LOVE it!

I fell in love with the River Path wall hanging that was in the last issue of MSQC Block Magazine. Lots of fun to piece and quilt.
